

HOMESTEAD COMMUNITY CONCERTS

2010-2011 Season

After 31 years in the old South Dade High School Auditorium, we are happy this 3rd year to be in the new auditorium and all of the amenities we find there, including the padded seats and excellent acoustics. The backstage area is great for the artists with well-appointed dressing rooms.

Seats adjacent to wheelchair cutouts will be reserved for family members.

3 INSPIRATIONAL TENORS

Saturday, December 4, 2010 • 7:30 p.m.

In 1995 three Atlantans, lifelong friends and classically trained tenors, decided to form their own version of the world renowned "Three Tenors." They became the "3 Inspirational Tenors," focusing on Christian music and message-oriented, secular works. Actually, the idea was the brainchild of Oliver Sueing's wife, Dr. Sharon J. Willis, who serves as musical director of the group. Their repertoire includes beloved hymns and spirituals such as How Great Thou Art, The Holy City, and He's Got the Whole World in His Hands, as well as inspiring popular songs such as Climb Every Mountain and The Impossible Dream.

GOLDEN DRAGON ACROBATS

Friday, January 7, 2011 • 7:30 p.m.

The Golden Dragon Acrobats represent the best of a time honored tradition that began more than twenty seven centuries ago. Direct from Hebei, China, our company has traveled around the world to all 50 states and to over 65 countries on five continents, with performers trained in the rigorous art of acrobatics since early youth, the troupe has garnered international acclaim. We are proud to have been presented with several major awards over our company's history including the National Association of Campus Activities (NACA) Entertainer of the Year Award and the Campus Activities Today's Performer of the Year Award.

"With the support of the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs, the Cultural Affairs Council, the Mayor, and the Miami-Dade County Board of County Commissioners."

COYOTE RUN

Sunday, February 6, 2011 • 2:30 p.m.

Within a sweeping soundscape, Coyote Run engages the audience in story after story, whisking them away to celebrate the ancient Celtic springtime holiday of Beltane (May Day), march side by side with the Scottish honor guard of Joan of Arc, roll out the guns against Sir Francis Drake, snatch back a faerie abductee, or defy the universe with the bold words of Invictus (the Unconquered). The stories are rich and compelling, the melodies are memorable and at once manage to be both familiar and original. Tight harmonies and soaring vocals telling tales from legend, history and myth are the hallmark of this band.

RED HOT JUBILEE JAM!

Saturday, March 12, 2011 • 7:30 p.m.

What fun! Music from Franz Schubert, Willie Nelson, Judy Garland, and Johnny Cash all on one stage with seven highly talented performers! These genres blend into a delectable and joyful smorgasbord of jazz, country, pop, show tunes, and impersonations that are sure to bring on lots of ear-to-ear grinning, and toe-tapping from the audience. The audience will hang on tight as the energetic troupe takes them on a journey to Tin Pan Alley in New York, and then down south to the Cajun country and Nashville. When Willie Nelson and Julio Iglesias appear to do the famous duet, To All the Girls I've Loved Before, it brings down the house!
